

I understand that there is an attempt afoot to destroy the protection the State of Wisconsin offers us with its no-call list. Isn't it about time for federal government agencies such as the FCC to protect CITIZENS' right to privacy rather than business intrusions?